

ARGYLE 2 DAY
Arron Booth Memorial Trial
June Sunday 9th & Monday 10th 2019

This June long weekend promises to be one of the social events of the year. TCV will once again host the traditional 2 day trial at Argyle (between Heathcote and Tooborac) in sunny Central Victoria.

2019 promises to be a beauty, so dust off the camping equipment, pack the car, load up the family and head for Argyle over the long weekend.

The property is tucked away off Newlans Lane and is perfect for camping, which is available from Saturday afternoon the 9th and the vibrant township of Heathcote is only about 6 kilometres away for your supplies.

The Arron Booth Memorial Trophy.

Arron was a member of TCV who lived life to the fullest, was always up for a practical joke and loved riding trials but tragically passed away as a result of an accident. This shield will be awarded to a rider who has demonstrated outstanding improvement over the last twelve months.
